Approved October 2020 Board minutes

Treasurers Report: Heather Reich

- Updated Budget vs Actual Statement YTD available
- Taxes have been filed with the help of Aminta Wu
- Yearbook will be priced at $35 a yearbook (our cost is $25)

Staff Student Services: Elli Mayo

- SAW will be spread out throughout the year this year
- Teachers will receive $100 each to spend in their classrooms and the PTA is giving one check to the school for this. (instructional funds)

Finance: Samantha Morgan

- Looking into potentially doing something with B&N for a portion of sales during a small period to get the kick back for the reading resource room
- Box top registering is significantly less than previous year due to people not using the app. The PTA is asking Dr. Connery to send an email as a reminder.

Academics: Lauren Forester

- Virtual book fair has begun, and teacher wish lists have been distributed to students.
- Science fair which will be virtual

Arts: Beth Goldstein (absent) presented by Brittany Adams

- Reflections winners have been announced
- For children that win several trophies at Reflections maybe just getting them one nicer trophy than a bunch of small ones.
- Square one is being moved to the Spring

- Starry Starry night will be a virtual call this year.
- Possible fund-raising ideas: pie in the face, penny wars, virtual challenge like the ALS ice-bucket challenge

Communications: Megan Skurski

- no updates

Family/Community Outreach: Christina DelGaudio

- Mike Trice is working to make All Pro Dads virtual. Gwinnett school system has said there will be no in person events this year.

Health/Environment: Christy Grant (absent) presented by Brittany Adams

- Christy Grant is moving and board voted for Sara Wiggins to fill the role.
- The bike safety class and walk to school day were both a success

Publications: Dana Zamuel

- Yearbook has 112 pages, 8 pages will have a summary of current year events

PTA Business

- Virtual winter party-school wide with a snack (available for pick up for the digital learners)
- PTA will provide plates/napkins
- class parents to donate water

Next Meeting December 4th
